MAKE A DIFFERENCE

1 SAMUEL 3:19 NET

Bishop Tshalo Katshunga

The background of the image is a dark blue-grey color, overlaid with a pattern of numerous glowing lightbulbs. The lightbulbs are of various sizes and orientations, some appearing to be lit from within, creating a soft, ethereal glow. The text is centered in the upper half of the image, set against a semi-transparent dark rectangular background.

“Samuel continued to grow, and the LORD was with him. None of his prophecies fell to the ground unfulfilled.”

1 SAMUEL 3:19 NET

“People as well as institutions which dare to be different, not weird or spooky, tend to make a difference in society. Samuel was such man!”

Samuel made a big difference on the landscape of his nation.

Seven Mountains of Societal Influence:

family

education

media

business

religion

government

arts and entertainment

Samuel dared to be different in an apostate society.

The background features a sequence of four dark blue silhouettes of a child in various stages of development: crawling, standing, running, and walking. Each silhouette is positioned in front of a large, semi-transparent circular shape in shades of green, orange, and purple. A yellow line with a red cross icon at the top left and a white circle at the bottom left connects the title box to the first list item.

Three things are said about him:

1 Samuel continued to grow.

1

Samuel continued to grow

Three types of people:

those who never
grow

those who grow
steadily.

those who grow
imperfectly

1

Samuel continued to grow

Four areas of growth:

spirit

character

mind

zeal
