ESTHER 2:21-23; ESTHER 6:1-9

Bishop Tshalo Katshunga

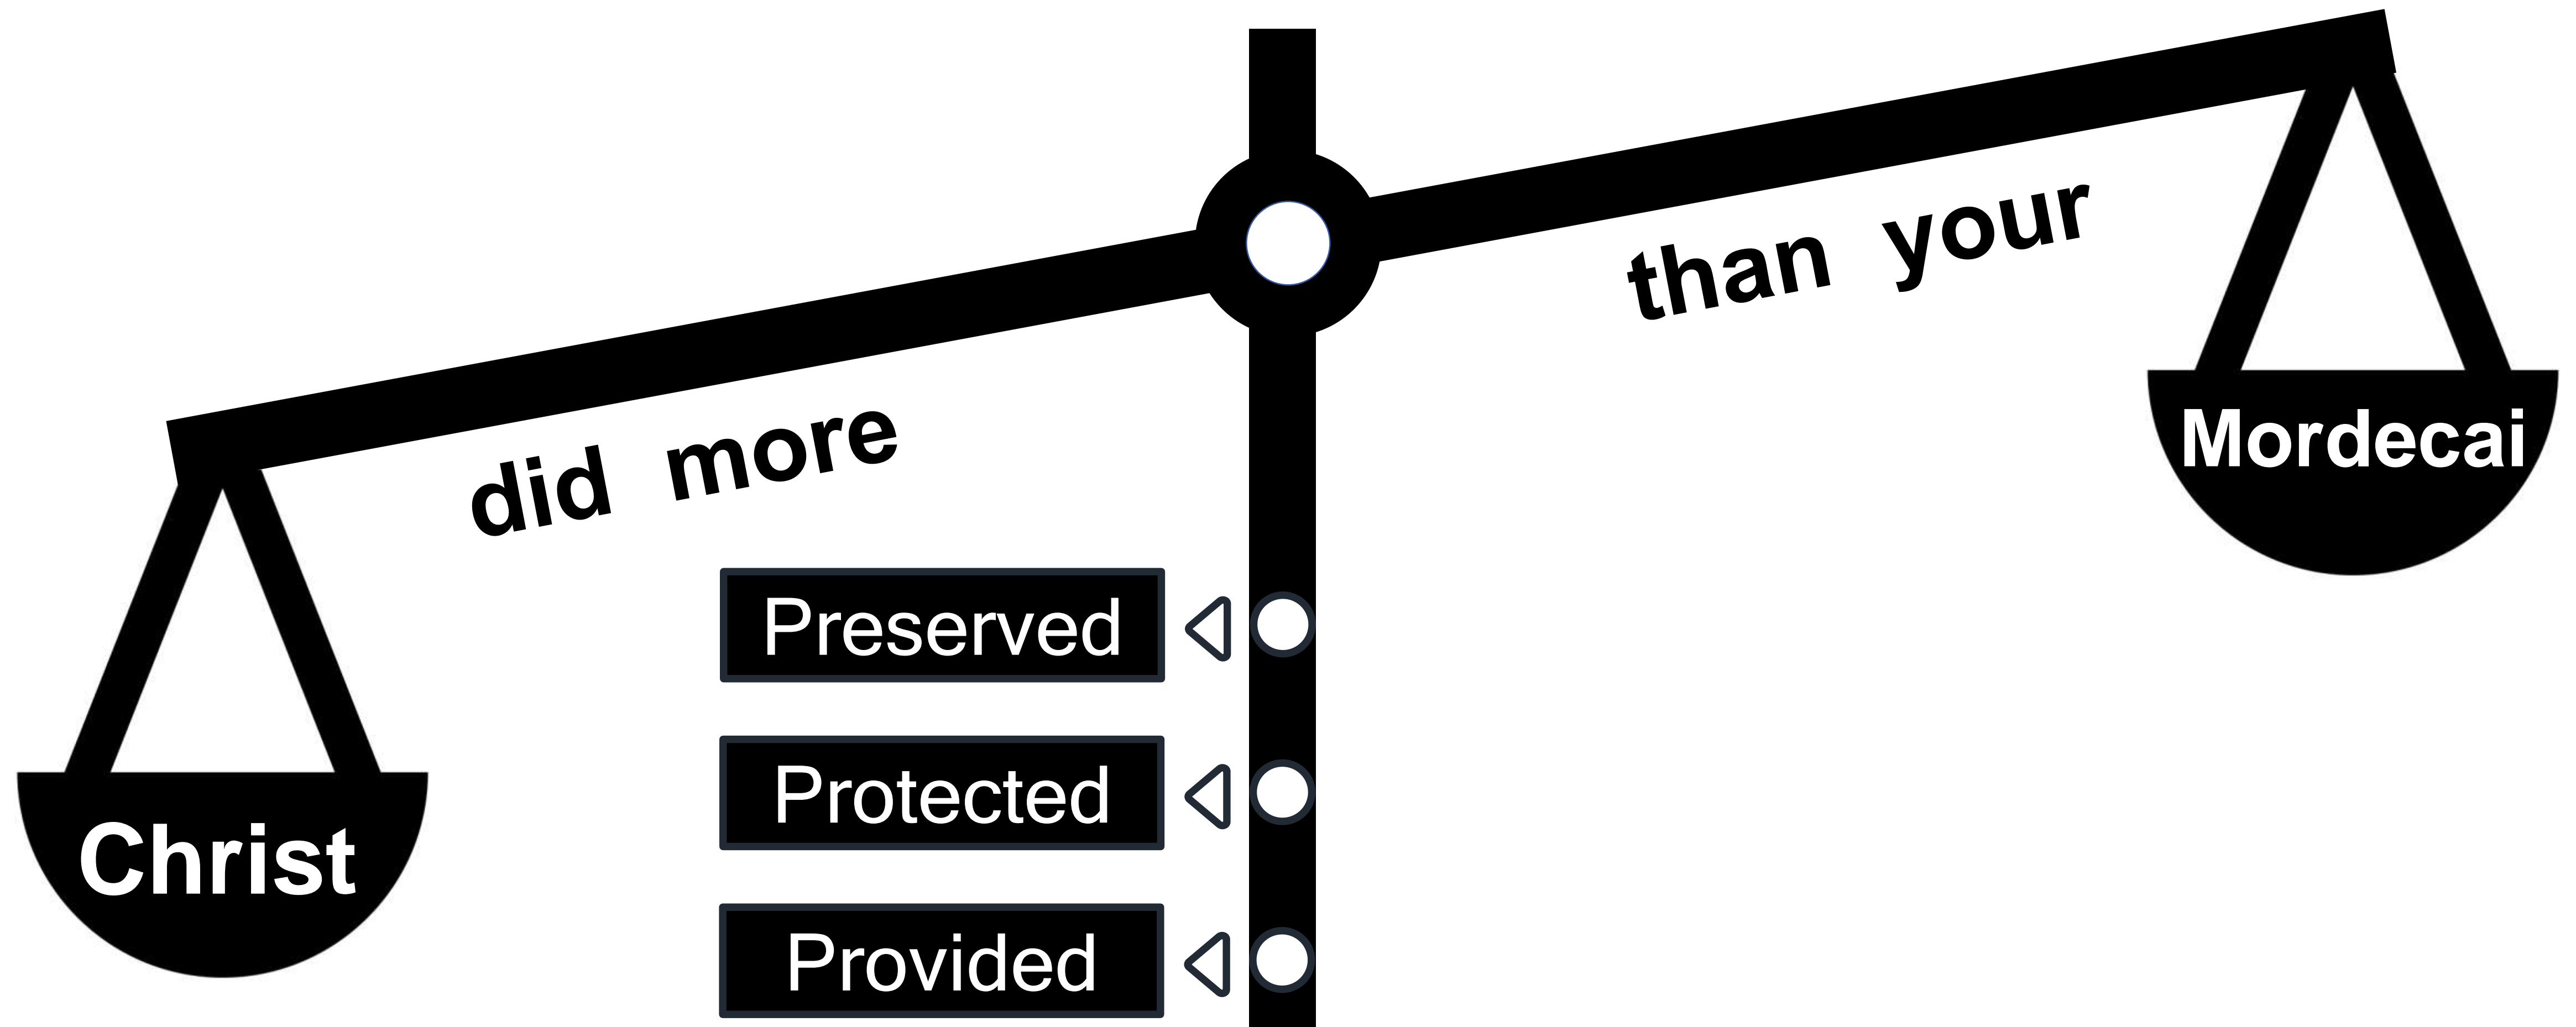

A silhouette of a person standing with their arms raised in a gesture of praise or triumph, set against a background of a sunset or sunrise over a landscape. The person is positioned in the upper right quadrant of the image.

A thoughtful person will not only recognize the active involvement of Christ in the events of his/her life, but will also pause and ask about the best possible way to honour Him in some practical ways.

Satan has always wanted to harm you

“Remember that if it has not been for the Lord who was always in your life, the enemy should have swallowed you up.”

“Christ has always played an incredibly major role, through his providence, in the drama of your life’s experience.”

Christ deserves more honour and recognition than “your Mordecai”

“Little honour is done to those who deserve it, and fittest for it, and would do most good with it.” (Matthew Henry)
